Subject: Dorcas BOSANKO

Fayth,

Beware the IGI lists! They are a very useful starting point, but as even they admit, all entries should be verified with parish registers, as the lists have been drawn up by volunteers, and we are all liable to make errors. I realise that it is very difficult for someone outside the UK to access the registers, and even in this country it is a very time consuming business. I have been through the Crowan parish registers of baptisms, marriages and burials in Cornwall, available for inspection at the County Record Office, Truro, which fortunately have been transcribed and alphabetically indexed (if you intend to go there on your visit, you need to be aware that you must make an previous appointment for your time there.) The baptisms contain two entries for Dorcas, as follows:

page 28: Dorcos daughter of Reginald BOSANCOE [Feb 21] 1721

page 29: Dorcas daughter of Thomas BOSANCOE Apr [20] 1723

- married William Jewell

The indexes have been compiled using both parish registers and bishop's transcripts (copies of the parish registers made at or soon after the events for the bishop.) Where entries are not legible from the parish register, and the information is only taken from the bishop's transcript, the information appears in square brackets- []. A minority of individuals were never baptised, which of course causes genealogists lots of problems when other evidence such as a marriage, burial or bequest in a will appears for someone that we have no baptism record. Such is the case for another Dorcas, who is found in the will of Reynald BOSANKOE, 1760. This Reynald (Reginald) is the person mentioned above on page 28 of the indexes, a tailor of Crowan buried apr. 9 1760 in Crowan. In his will he leaves a gold ring to "Darcus BOSANKOE", who he states is the daughter of his son Reynald i.e. his granddaughter. Although we do not have a baptism record for her, we do for some of this son Reynald's other children, and also the marriage of this younger Reynald to Elizabeth PENTECOST on 14 Jul 1733 in Crowan. Their known children were:

Johnson of Reginold [Reiginold] bpt.
 dec [27] 1737, Crowan (baptism register)
 Thomas.....son of Reginold & Eliz. his wife bpt. [after sep.] 1739, Crowan (baptism register)
 Eliz.dau. of Reyd. & Eliz. his wife bpt.
 9br 1 1742, Crowan (baptism register)
 Darcus.....presumably born between 1733 and 1745

12 59P	DR DAY OUT		12
--------	------------	--	----	--	--	--	--

(will of 1760)

So now you can see that we have an ideal candidate to be married to Richard WATERS in 1762-a Dorcas (Darcus) who was still single in 1760 because the will gives her surname as BOSANKOE, who was probably born between 1733 and 1745, daughter of Reginold (Reynold) and who was not baptised.

Of the two earlier Dorcas's, we know from the burial registers that Dorcas, daughter of Reiginold (the elder) was buried at Crowan, in 1722. She must be the Dorcas baptised [feb 21] 1721. Therefore, on the evidence we have, we must conclude that the Dorcas who married William JEWEL was the daughter of Thomas BOSANCOE, bpt. apr [20] 1723. My research has led me to the following group for this part of the family:

Thomas bpt. 11 mar 1684, Crowan married Mary (unknown) on 12 feb. 1708, Crowan

Their children: Thomas, bpt. 21 sep. 1709
 Ann, bpt. 24 feb. 1710
 Thomas, bpt. 10 apr. 1714
 Alce, bpt. 28 apr. 1716
 Alicce bpt. 1 sep. 1718
 Dorcas bpt. 20 apr. 1723
 William bpt. 5 nov. 1726

all baptised Crowan.

These, of course are the known children, but it could well be that a Samuel (remember him?) was born to this couple, and not baptised. This theory has a lot going for it, but I can't prove it yet.

Just one more word about Dorcas. There was in fact one more Dorcas BOSANKO around in this time period, namely Dorcas nee NICHOLS, married to Reginald BOSANCO on nov. 3 1703, Phillack (this is the tailor of Crowan whose will I have a copy of.) She, however could not be eligible to marry William JEWEL as her husband Reginald was still alive at the time of this marriage.

Hope all this has been easy to follow, and I do hope to get time to send you the complete burial list for Crowan, which will give you more time to concentrate on other material on your visit. Perhaps I could even meet up with you when you come to the UK.

Regards, John.
